What is our mission?

T

Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach (SCPO) Women's Program is part of the Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach. Spiritus Christi Church is a Christ-centered Catholic community reaching beyond the institutional church to be inclusive of all. Jesus Christ is our pastor; therefore we open our church as a spiritual refuge. We hold the Eucharist as the center of our sacramental life. We embrace the challenge of the Scriptures. We are ordinary people joyously celebrating the opportunity to follow Jesus' radical message of unconditional love.

The mission of Spiritus Christi Church is to embrace the challenge of the Gospel, celebrating the opportunity to follow Jesus Christ. As part of that mission, we have founded Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach. Jennifer House is a part of Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach

Jennifer House is a residential program where staff and volunteers provide a loving, safe and supportive home for women and their children. The women and children recognize that they are the women and children of God and that they are beautiful just as God intended them to be. Our mission is to respond to the Gospel call, to visit women and men in prison and journey with them as they reenter the community.

How do we accomplish our mission?

At Jennifer House, we provide women leaving prison with:

- Food
- Shelter
- Clothing
- A structured and safe environment
- Help with getting benefits in place (e.g., Medicaid, DSS)
- A plan for the next step in your life (longer-term transitional housing, inpatient or outpatient program, parenting classes, apartment, etc.)
- An advocate with other service agencies
- Help with child care and rides when able
- In-house support groups.

Our objectives are to:

- Help women create a solid foundation for rebuilding their lives,
- Reunite women with their children,
- Provide a safe and structured home for women leaving jail and for their children,
- Connect women with the physical, mental, and social services that they need to start the process of rebuilding.

How can you help?

Jennifer House is a safe, structured, and supportive temporary home for women and their children. Many of the women have come from all kinds of abusive situations. Our volunteers and staff play a very important role in creating a safe home for our residents. Listen to what the women themselves have to say:

- Understand how much we do not know. We are embarrassed; we cover up and pretend. Let us know it is okay to tell you this, and you will not judge us for it.

- We need someone to listen.
- We are worth saving.
- Even though we are criminals we are not animals. We need to be treated like human beings while incarcerated.
- How do people make it? We need people to show us how they do that.
- All I want is a safe place to live.
- I need other people to help me.
- You are looking at an individual woman with individual hopes and dreams.
- Please look deep inside yourself before you say we are all bad.
- We can put ourselves back together with your help.
- It is very hard to ask for help; please do not judge me.
- No matter what the women's color, race, or crime, inside there is a child of God, a good woman.
- I think, "Lord have mercy. How could God forgive me?" But, He has.

As a volunteer you are a part of the Jennifer House community. The responsibilities will change as our residents change. Some of the responsibilities may include greeting residents, making sure rules are being followed, driving women and children to and from appointments, visiting with residents, playing with children, preparing a meal, answering the phone—tasks that are similar to many of the things you do in your own home.

It is important for the smooth running of the house to have volunteer hours scheduled. The hours that you volunteer can be as few or as many as you can commit to. We ask that if you are scheduled to volunteer at Jennifer House and cannot be there, give us as much notice as possible. This will ensure that the house runs smoothly.

If you ever have any doubts or concerns about anything or anybody at Jennifer House please feel free to talk to any staff member about it. We are very thankful to have you as a part of our community, and we hope that you receive as much from being a part of Jennifer House as we do.

What do you need to do to become a volunteer at Jennifer House?

In order to volunteer at Jennifer House, you need to:

- Receive an orientation and sign the statement of orientation form
- Fill out the volunteer questionnaire
- Sign the confidentiality agreement

(These three documents are included in the back of the volunteer manual.)

All volunteers will receive an orientation to Jennifer House by the director and/or designated staff. Orientation will take place within two weeks of the volunteer placement and will include:

- An overview of Spiritus Christi Church history
- An overview of Jennifer House history, mission, and procedures
- A detailed review of anonymity, confidentiality and ethical conduct
- A review of policies regarding money, team approach and relationships
- A review of the job description, evaluation, problem review and dismissal procedures.

At the completion of the orientation, the volunteer will sign a statement verifying the completion of the orientation, which will be kept in the volunteer's file.

Are there any rules or guidelines that volunteers need to follow?

Jennifer House is committed to integrity in the work place. Though our ministry often takes place in informal as well as formal settings, volunteers are responsible for high ethical conduct at all times. We value honesty in sharing and record keeping. We uphold the dignity of each person and honor his/her experience and story. We are committed to each person's safety—physical, emotional, and mental—by the wise and just use of the power of our position. We respect the principles and teachings of Spiritus Christi Church and Jennifer House. Above all we honor the sanctity and equality of each person regardless of the differences of birth or learned experiences.

Please make sure that you are familiar with both the staff and the volunteer policies listed below. Also, please review the rules that residents receive when they come to Jennifer House. This will give you an understanding of what we expect from residents and the type of structure that we impose.

Jennifer House Staff Policies

Our focus as a staff is to provide our residents with a safe, loving place to begin their recovery. We are committed to the following policies to help guide our work.

- We will work as a team sharing information and struggles. Communication is key for the wellbeing of our residents.
- Volunteer staff will not give money or gifts to residents or former residents.
- Volunteer staff may not date residents.
- Volunteer staff may not lend their vehicles, TV, cell phones or any equipment of any kind to residents.
- One to one conversations after the Tuesday night group regarding anything shared in the group are not permitted.
- Discretion needs to be used when choosing to share personal information with residents.

Upholding Jennifer House policies and rules is essential for the unity and strength of the program.

Volunteer Policies

Our experience has taught us your best interest and the best interest of the residents of Jennifer House are maintained if the following guidelines are followed:

- Do not give out your phone number or address
- Do not give any money to any resident
- Staff permission is needed to take any resident out of Jennifer House
- Do not keep anything a resident says or does from the staff
- Do not open the door for anyone you do not know or have not been informed about
- Your personal belongings should not be left unattended
- Maintain and promote mother and child bonding, however well-intentioned, interference in this process can be very upsetting to the resident
- Keep discussion of/with the residents or what goes on in the house confidential
- A child under five cannot be transported without a car seat
- Only staff can give out medications-no exceptions
- Do not bring friends or family to the house without prior approval of the staff
- Do not let residents borrow your car or belongings
- Unless asked by the staff, do not do residents' assigned chores
- Provide child care only when approved by staff
- Never hit a child
- Report any abuse/neglect to staff who will take appropriate action; do not act on your own
- Report any use of any illegal substances to staff who will take appropriate action; do not act on your own

- Remember to be sensitive at all times to the residents' backgrounds—especially when telling stories or jokes

Please feel free to ask for a meeting with staff at any time.

What happens if I have a problem while I'm volunteering at Jennifer House?

If a volunteer has a problem, it is the responsibility of the volunteer to notify the director of Jennifer House and to schedule a meeting. This meeting will take place within ten days of the volunteer's request. If after this meeting the volunteer feels that the problem has not been resolved, she/he may request a meeting with the director's supervisor. This meeting will take place within ten days of the volunteer's request. The director's supervisor will make the final decision on how to resolve the problem. Documentation of the problem and its resolution will be placed in the volunteer's file.

Volunteer Dismissal

Several acts of misconduct are considered so universally recognized as being very serious violations of accepted behavior that they may subject a volunteer to immediate dismissal.

The following acts are considered to be against the best interest of Jennifer House, its residents, and its ministry:
